

Interdisciplinary Transportation Studies and **GLIBER Center(ITG) Presents*

Speaker Series for Fall 2017

October 17 2017 11:00 AM to 12:00 PM

Location: Torian Auditorium, Jordan Building

Ms. Kerrie Davis, Transportation Planner

Planning, Development Services and Code Enforcement

Title: The Future of Transportation Planning – A view of current transportation trends and what that means for future job opportunities

About the topic: New and emerging technologies have the potential to completely change the transportation landscape. What does this mean for the future of transportation planning as well as potential job opportunities in the transportation field? This lecture will delve into potential effects these technological advancements may have on the transportation system and link it to sectors of job growth and development.

About the speaker: Kerrie Davis is the transportation planner for DARTS MPO housed within the City of Albany/Dougherty County Planning Department. She has over thirteen years of professional planning experience. Kerrie's skills include housing, community development, facilitation and transportation planning. She is married to Stanley Davis and together they are raising three marvelously rambunctious boys.

Department of Engineering Technology
College of Sciences and Technology

• Funded by National Science Foundation
**Global Logistics and International Business
Education and Research Center

College of Business Administration
College of Liberal Arts and Social Sciences

Interdisciplinary Transportation Studies and **GLIBER Center(ITG) Presents** Speaker Series for Fall 2017

Ms. Kerrie Davis, Transportation Planner
Planning, Development Services and Code Enforcement
Title: The Future of Transportation Planning – A view of current transportation trends and what that means for future job opportunities
Date: October 17, 2017
Time: 11:00 AM to 12:00 PM
Location: Torian Auditorium, Jordan building

About the topic: New and emerging technologies have the potential to completely change the transportation landscape. What does this mean for the future of transportation planning as well as potential job opportunities in the transportation field? This lecture will delve into potential effects these technological advancements may have on the transportation system and link it to sectors of job growth and development.

About the speaker: Kerrie Davis is the transportation planner for DARTS MPO housed within the City of Albany/Dougherty County Planning Department. She has over thirteen years of professional planning experience. Kerrie's skills include housing, community development, facilitation and transportation planning. She is married to Stanley Davis and together they are raising three marvelously rambunctious boys.

Department of Engineering Technology
College of Sciences and Technology

College of Business Administration
College of Liberal Arts and Social Sciences

All Students and Faculty from Savannah State University are Invited!

• Funded by National Science Foundation
**Global Logistics and International Business
Education and Research Center

Contact: Shilpa Prasad – Program Assistant
Email: prasads@savannahstate.edu; Phone: 912-358-3418